

St Mary's Church at Brecon Jazz!

Having missed last year's Brecon Jazz Festival while the roof repairs were being carried out, everyone at St Mary's Church is looking forward to being involved in the festival again this year!

For the first time there will be a St Mary's Stage with evening concerts.

Friday 3.15pm - 4.30pm: Hot Club Gallois - public 'manouche jazz' concert - free entry

Friday 6.00pm - 7.15pm: Side by Side with Refugees - Charity Concert, with Ian Shaw - £14 ticketed & door

Saturday 2.30pm - 3.45pm: Hoppin' Mad Swing dance class - £10 ticketed & door

Saturday 7.00pm - 8.15pm: Pavel P Q - Czech modern quartet - £14 ticketed & door

Sunday 5.15pm - 6.30pm: Josephine Davies Trio 'Satori' - modern east/west sound - £12 ticketed and door

During the weekend there will be a variety of free concerts details of which are included in the Festival Programme.

St Mary's Church is such an atmospheric venue against the backdrop of the East window designed by John Petts (installed in 1989) and excellent acoustics. Light refreshments will continue to be available during the evening concerts.

"We hope you are able to join us and everyone is looking forward to an exciting and successful weekend."
